

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

Robin Hood Monday.

Much interest has been aroused in the coming presentation of the Aborn company's revival of the famous comic opera, "Robin Hood" to be seen and heard at the Kentucky theater on Monday night. The latest newspaper to add its endorsement to this attraction is the Galveston, (Texas) Tribune from which the following is an extract: "The Aborn company in 'Robin Hood' is the best singing organization seen here in several seasons, barring the Savage Grand Opera company. Even the Comedians do not maltreat the score, and the male chorus is good enough for grand opera, while the feminine section holds its own with them."

"Vivia Brewster, a beautiful Texas girl with a soprano of unusual breadth, and high notes of flute-like clearness, sang 'Maid Marian's' rich melodies so well that many encores and flowers were her happy reward. Ethel Houston's deep-toned contralto was heard to advantage in 'Oh, Promise Me,' and she looked boyish and handsome as Alan-a-Dale. Mr. Blake won favor as Robin Hood with his easy grace and pleasant resonant tenor. Mr. Edward Metcalf had the great bass necessary for Will Scarlet, and gave the Armorer's Song impressively. Good, too, was the Little John of Mr. Stall, and his baritone solo 'The Brown October Ale' was redemanded. Good comedy work by Mr. Heck as the sheriff and Mr. Donald as Guy of Gisborne, with the aid of Agnes Stone as Dame Durdene and Meta Carson as Annabelle, rounded out an excellent performance.

The Sambo Girl.

The most talked about attraction for the coming theatrical week in Paducah is Miss Eva Tanguay's and "The Sambo Girl" who comes to The Kentucky on Saturday of next week. Miss Tanguay's reputation as a comedienne is firmly established and the Tanguay method and mannerisms are the object of imitation by many aspirants for histrionic fame. It was by reason of her creation of distinctly unique roles in "The Chaperons" and Frank Daniels' production of "The Office Boy" that Miss Tanguay succeeded in making the dramatic reviewers of the eastern states "sit up and take notice," and in the part of Carlotta Dashing-ton, in "The Sambo Girl," she has, it is said, added another comedy creation to her repertoire that has won for her additional acclaim.

Miss Tanguay's company is a large one and apart from a particularly fine cast of principals, she has also been supplied with a chorus of comely girls who are not only good to look upon but who can really sing the musical score of "The Sambo Girl" intelligently and correctly.

"The Lyman Twins" Coming.

The famous young stars "The Lyman Twin Brothers" who have jumped with wonderful strides to the front rank as comedians, and who we will have the pleasure of seeing here soon in their new comedy "The Rustlers" which is said to be one of the finest and most complete musical comedy productions of the day, are comedians in a class by themselves. Their new vehicle "The Rustlers" is the most elaborate production in which they have yet appeared. Carrying a large company, a dainty chorus of pretty girls, a host of funny comedians, singers and dancers together with a beautiful array of scenic and electrical effects complete.

At The Kentucky on Thursday, Mar. 22nd.

Lyman Twins Coming.

The local management has closed an engagement for this month for the Lyman Twins to appear here. The advance man left Paducah this morning.

The Eagles' Minstrel.

The Eagles' minstrel at the Kentucky theatre Wednesday night will doubtless pack the house. The program will include the following:

Ballad singers—Richard Scott, Everett Thompson, Robt. Chastaine, Will Green and Chas. Collins.
Comedy singers—Chas. Hart, Will Brazelton, Ross Hoagland and Bobby Caldwell.

A chorus of 24 voices and orchestra of 12 instruments.

A swell stage picture has been arranged for the first part. It opens with an ingenious medley which begins with a greeting to friends and concludes with a musical quarrel, "Grand Opera versus Ragtime," between the ballad singers and end men. The finale to the first part, "Hail to the Flag," presents an inspiring and pretty feature.

The olio concludes a short monologue by Bobby Caldwell, cornet solo by T. Cooney, buck and wing dancing by Chas. Long, German sketch by Ross Hoagland, illustrated songs by Chas. Hart and quartet-singing by Messrs. Collins, Chastaine, Clarke and Greene and probably other features.

The after piece, "King of the Philippines," is one of the funniest ever written, and will be put on with a hurrah.

Mr. Bert King, of the Deal band and orchestra, went to Kuttawa and Eddyville this morning to arrange for the appearance of the orchestra in those towns shortly. Prof. Deal has been making these dates for the past week or two, playing for the benefit of churches, etc. Several concerts were given in Paducah and one at Metropolis. Mr. King is the cornet player of the orchestra.

The big rehearsal for the Eagles' minstrels to be given next week will be held at The Kentucky tomorrow afternoon. The orchestra will have a rehearsal with the members of the cast.

Henrietta Crossman April 10th.

Manager Thomas Roberts, of the Kentucky theatre, who has booked Henrietta Crossman for April 10th, has been notified that she will play her brilliant success, "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary."

Dramatic Notes.

The "Rocky Road to Dublin" Co. will pass through Paducah Sunday afternoon on train No. 101 en route to Memphis from Louisville. The local I. C. received a movement for the company this morning. It is a big company playing only the big cities, and Barney Gilmore is the star.
